Hi Mr. Halden,

I'm just curious as to what you understand the word "focus" to mean in this context. I thought I understood what it's generally accepted to mean in the context of CPRA requests, but obviously my understanding is incompatible with yours given that from my point of view this request is 100% completely focused and it's logically impossible to focus it more. If you don't mind letting me know what it means to you to "focus the search terms" it would possibly make our interactions more efficient.

Thanks!

Hi [REDACTED]

We are still working on this request. The initial search yielded a very large volume (approximately 1400 pages). Given that, and coupled with your multiple other requests we are simultaneously working to complete, I expect this to be completed by 12/31/19.

As always, we will try to complete things sooner. Please let me know if you would like to narrow or focus the search terms in any way.

Thank you,
